

MYP Collaborative Sharing Session

Sponsored by GIBS, the Association of IB Schools in the Northeast United States

Hill-Freedman Middle School invites you to a

Physical Education

MYP Collaborative Sharing Session

Who is invited: Up to five Physical/Health Education teachers per school/district are invited to attend this sharing session.

What will happen: This Physical Education Sharing Session aims to bring schools together to share best practice which will include discussions about a Physical Education MYP unit plan and summative assessment. In order to gain a broader understanding of what great things Physical Education teachers have done throughout our region, participating teachers and coordinators from each school will share, in approximately 10-15 minutes, a summative assessment, a unit or part of a unit. This will be followed by a question and answer period.

Where: Hill-Freedman Middle School

6200 Crittenden Street
Philadelphia, PA 19138

When: Friday, February 24, 2012, from 9:00-2:00

Presenters will have access to a computer, the internet, an interactive whiteboard, and are encouraged to bring student-work samples. Please bring your subject area guide and the guide MYP: From principles into practice.

Cost:

GIBS members: First two participants at no cost; each additional participant at $25.00

Non-members: $75.00 each

Contact and register by January 28, 2012 with:

Pamela Taylor Anderson, MYP Coordinator:
ptaylorharris@philasd.org or (215) 276-5260

Mail payments to:

GIBS: PO Box 2615, Binghamton, NY 13902-2615

Breakfast and lunch will be served.